Dedication

WE, THE CLASS of 1953, the first graduating class fortunate enough to have been under the able and thoughtful guidance of Mr. John A. Redmond for the four full years of our high school career, dedicate our yearbook to him, our beloved principal.

Whenever we, who now leave the familiar halls of Hingham High, look back to our high school days, Mr. Redmond will be foremost in our thoughts; as the man who so quickly gained our respect and admiration, and who always will be thought of as a friend and advisor to all.

To you, Mr. Redmond, we give our sincere thanks and appreciation for the friendly interest you have shown in all of us — and in all of our activities. May your stay in Hingham be a long and happy one.

CLASS POEM

Fond Memories

*We are the class of fifty-three
What pleasing memories there'll be.
From Hingham High now comes the day
When each of us must go his way.*

*Put out that foot and take that step
The step that leads us to success;
With faculty and friends the best,
How could we fail to pass the test?*

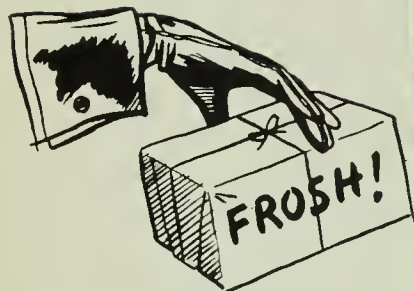

*Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors, too,
Our best wishes we leave with you.
May all your days at Hingham High
Be as pleasant as ours gone by.*

*Why did we think our books a bore?
Look at the knowledge in our store.
Now as we close, we join to say
Good-bye to all, we're on our way.*

Our Class Will

Know all men by these Articles, that we, the Class of 1953 of the Hingham High School, in the Town of Hingham, County of Plymouth, and the State of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and body, do construct and draw up this, our last will and testament, and declare all other wills to be null, void and without the power to tend legal action:

We unhesitantly appoint Mr. Ralph C. Magnuson as executor of this will, and since Mr. Magnuson is skilled not only in executing wills, but extracting tardy athletic equipment, we feel that these requests will be earnestly and faithfully carried out.

First—We bequeath to our successors, the Class of 1954, the great honor and dignity which is an attribute of the Senior Class.

Second—We bestow to same successors, all momentary visions of excellent marks, all nightmares and tortures brought on by failures, term tests, and college board exams.

Third—We compound and bequeath to all unfortunate students our autographic expertness in signing notes, excuses, and report cards.

Fourth—We beneficently donate from financial profits derived from our social activities, the following needed accessories:

- 1.—An elevator substantially reinforced to transport 1st floor inhabitants to the 4th throughout the day.
- 2.—An adequate amount of T. N. T. to gently open lockers when all other methods have failed.
- 3.—One pencil sharpener for all rooms.
- 4.—All-scholastic teams for each sport.

Fifth—To the midget freshmen, we gratefully donate the upper book shelves in the lockers, which we are now accustomed to, although a ladder had once been necessary.

Sixth—To Mr. Redmond we leave many, many thanks for just being himself and the principal whom we all respect and admire.

Seventh—Lyn, Bev, Butch, and Kay leave an extra supply of enthusiasm for the football and basketball games of next year, and also a supply of patience for planning all the rallies and settling the bus situation, to the Juniors and newcomers.

Eighth—Digger and Joanie leave their uniforms and boots to anyone who can fill them.

Ninth—Carole and Bev leave the work on future yearbooks . . . PERIOD!

Tenth—To Kenny Hubbart and Sherry Hilliard, Florence and Foster leave their "going-steady ways."

Realizing that we quickly approach the end, we ask on this day in June in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, at the Hingham High School in Hingham, Massachusetts, that these directions be executed immediately and with the greatest skill.

With nervous torch, we blaze this, our most famous signature,

THE CLASS OF 1953

Witnessed with unbound pleasure by

AS WE USED TO BE

CLASS HISTORY

By Betty Anderson
and Peggy Ayers

Early in September, 1949, a befuddled group assembled before the portals of H.H.S. We, the entering freshman class, were viewed with suspicion by the upperclassmen, horror by the faculty, and sympathetic understanding(?) by the sophomores. However, we soon forgot our fears of teachers and the Marshal Board, and were represented by various members of the class in many school activities. We elected Angelo, "Sweeney," Kay Sullivan, and Jack Lynch to guide our ship of state through its first year on the sea of knowledge.

When football got underway, Jack Lynch and "Sweeney" made a name for themselves as gridiron standouts. Bob Thomas and "Skippy" Urbati showed much promise on the basketball court, while Gene Smith won several awards for his prowess on the track. When softball season rolled around, Marion Biddle, Betty Catrambone and Anna Papasadero gained fame as the only freshmen members of the varsity team.

After the sophs treated us to a Hobo Dance we returned their kindness by inviting them to a social held in the gym. At this affair, certain members of the class established themselves as "lives of the party." The advisors who helped us through our first year at H.H.S. were Miss Ruth Poole and Mr. John Samuelson.

We started our sophomore year "with a bang" by electing "Sweeney", Pres.; Angelo, Vice Pres.; Beth Bigelow, Sec.; and Dick Spratley, Treasurer. Mr. Theodore Ricci and Mr. Richard Woodward guided our able Executive Board in its many activities. We, enterprising sophomores, condescended to invite the Frosh to the outstanding dance of the H.H.S. social season. As a new floor had just been put in the gym, a sock dance was held, with prizes awarded for the most artistically decorated socks.

Arthur Hornstra and Foster Webb became regulars on the varsity football team, while Florence Brouillard starred in the Dramatic Club's production of "Love and How to Cure It."

Ruth Loring, Carole Butcher, Diane Barry, Peggy Ayers, Carol Fardig, and Marion Biddle took the Civil Service test and became active members of the Senior Marshal Board.

When tryouts for cheerleading positions were held, Bev Doherty, Carole Butcher, Kay Blowers, Anne Gallagher, and Lyn Chaffee were elected.

It wasn't long before we reached the halfway mark. Yes, we were juniors; and how proud we were not to be regarded as underclassmen! This year, "Sweeney," our Chief Executive, was assisted by Bev Doherty. Rosie Capparotta kept the notes, while Anna Papasadero tried to keep our budget straight.

Football arrived again, and we found our class gridiron heroes still holding their own. We had a good basketball season with "Skippy" Urbati as a real standout.

We cannot forget that thrilling spook basketball game sponsored by the Varsity H Club. Remember the Junior Prom? Joan Sestito was the pretty Junior Queen. Yes, that night was certainly one to remember. After all, it was the first prom we, as Juniors, had ever attempted, and we were proud.

At Easter, we decided that we needed money for our treasury. Thanks to Pat Guinessey and her mother, we staged a successful fashion show. We were "terrific" models, weren't we, girls? Our many thanks to Ann Bruce, the narrator, and Leo Dauphinais, for without him we would have been in darkness.

Remember the spring talent show? The "Flappers" will go down in history as H.H.S.'s own chorus line.

In June, Girls' State and Boys' State beckoned. Peggy Ayers and Betty Anderson were invited to Girls' State, while Roy Smith, Gene Smith, Richmond Donaldson, and Fred Kaemphe attended Boys' State.

Angelo Zona and Gene Smith were elected president and vice president, respectively, of the Student Council. Our Junior year came to a close, and we said "Hasta La Vista" to old H.H.S. until the next year.

As the trees in front of H.H.S. turned to red and gold, our renowned class returned as mighty seniors. Each a little older, a little wiser, and much smarter. When class elections were held, we elected Camillo "Sweeney" Spirito, Valerie Gilbert, Betty Anderson, and Roy Smith to guide us through our last year.

Pauline Hunter did an excellent job as president of the French Club. The play, "The Pampered Darling," under the direction of Miss Brega, was the best yet.

Our attentions soon turned once again to the gridiron, and we were proud to find Carol Fardig and Joan Sestito in the limelight as head drum majorettes.

Let us never forget the highlight of our football season . . . the Enfield, Conn. game. This event showed the warm hospitality of the Enfield people . . . the football players can vouch for that. It was a most unusual day enjoyed by all.

Our twelve senior football players played a successful season, as Captain Jack Lynch lived up to his reputation as a great ball carrier. The Turkey Day Game was a thriller for all. Our senior boys really played their hearts out to win their last schoolboy game, and came through with flying colors and a score of 21-6, over the traditional rival, Rockland. They were cheered to victory by our peppy cheerleaders, captained by Lyn Chaffee.

The Field Hockey team, captained by Marion Biddle, had a successful season this year, and the Hockey Banquet will long be remembered.

We must not forget the Harborman's Hop, sponsored by the Varsity H Club. Congratulations to the Jacket Committee. The decorations resulted from the creative genius of E.J. Hamann and Bev. Doherty, assisted by Florence Brouillard, Marion Biddle, Peggy Ayers, Dotty Goodman, Betty Anderson, Margie Miller, and others.

The Ice Hockey Team cannot be forgotten with Fred Fahnley, the senior boy in the spotlight.

Gene Smith ably captained the Senior Marshal Board, while Pete Sterling, as president of the Teen Can Committee, conducted many a happy evening at Agricultural Hall.

We, at Hingham, were proud to have Nancy Bush represent Hingham High School in "Good Government Day." Congratulations to you too, Marion Biddle, for receiving the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award, awarded to an outstanding senior girl.

As years pass, the memory of our four happy years at H.H.S. will linger. We look back as we leave you with this thought in mind, "Remember well these years, for they are the best years of your life."

Hingham Memories

By Peter Sterling

*In old Hingham, land of beauty,
'Neath the skies so clear,
Sheltered is its proudest treasure,
Alma Mater dear.
We thy students will be loyal;
For thy glory fight;
Always keep thy name untarnished
And thine honor bright.*

*High school moments gone forever
End these happy days,
Now the call of life and duty
Sends us on our ways.
Yet our thoughts will, oft returning,
Make us think until
We shall see those happy moments
Pass before us still.*
